

REMARKS

In the Office Communication mailed December 28, 2005, the Examiner has indicated that Applicants' Response filed on September 29, 2005 to the prior Office Communication is not fully responsive. The Examiner has required Applicants to comply with the requirements set forth in 37 C.F.R. §§41.202(a)(2)-(a)(6) regarding the proposed interference between the allowable claims of the present application and U.S. Patent 5,929,939.

Applicants respectfully submit that the assignee of record of the present application, Zenyth Operations Pty Ltd (formerly Amrad Operations Pty Ltd), has presently assigned all right, title and interest to the Ludwig Institute for Cancer Research and Licentia Ltd. The assignment and the Certificate of Registration of a Change of Name, together with the recordation cover sheets, are being submitted herewith to the USPTO for recordation. Copies of these submissions are enclosed for the Examiner's reference.

Applicants respectfully submit that U.S. Patent 5,928,939 to Eriksson et al. has also been assigned to Ludwig Institute for Cancer Research and Licentia Ltd. In light of the common ownership of the present application and the '939 patent, Applicants respectfully submit that the basis for the proposed interference between the present application and the '939 patent is hereby terminated.

Respectfully submitted,

Frank S. DiGiglio
